Note

Mr J G Tait M A has returned from furlough on the 20th Instant

Mr Freeve, the successor of Mr E N Leonard, will join only on the 3rd Feb 1902

The present arrangements will have to continue till 3rd Feb 1902, as Mr Cook will continue to take a part of the English teaching viz Mr B Venkatesachar as Ag Lecturer on Rs 150

Mr C M Rajagopalachar to get allowance of Rs 75

Mr B Venkatnarasappa to get an allowance of Rs — 50

When Mr Freeve joins, Mr Cook will have no more English teaching. The above arrangements will then cease

But Mr Cook wants to leave only Mr Venkatesachar, as Assistant Lecturer Physics on the same Pay Rs 150 His temporary appointment of Venkatesachar is recommended only for a period of 2 months ie from 3rd Feb to 3rd April 1902

When Mr Cook takes furlough from the 3rd April 1902, the following arrangements are recommended

(1) Mr J G Tait to be Ag Principal with the allowance of Rs 150 and the free use of the College House

2 Mr Venkatesachar as Lecturer Rs 175

3 Mr Rajagopalachar to get an allowance of Rs 75

4 Mr Venkatnarasappa to get an allowance of Rs 50

Mr Cook recommends [redacted] appointment of Rs N Venkatesa Iyengar as Br of Meteorology with an allowance of Rs 50 per mensem during his absence

Sir,

I have the honor to request that, as it is more than eight and a half years since I returned from my last Furlough (18th July 1893), Government may be pleased to sanction my taking, from 3rd April next, Privilege Leave for one and a half months - (to which I am entitled by special Order on account of my work as Director of Meteorology in Mysore and which in any case will be merely the equivalent of the College Midsummer holidays from the middle of April to end of May) - and thereafter Furlough for ten and a half months

2 I have the honor to submit for the approval of the Government the following arrangements for the Educational work of the College during my absence on leave:—

(i) that Mr J G Tait M.A. be appointed Acting Principal, as he was during my previous furlough (from 22nd July 1892 to 18th July 1893), and that he be permitted to occupy the Central College House free of rent

(ii) that the Science teaching be provided for as follows -

(a) by the continuance of Mr B.Venkateshachar as Lecturer in Physics on a pay of Rs175/- the allowance of Mr R,Srinivasa Iyer M.A. during my previous furlough - and that he continue as an Assist.-ant Lecturer ~~Lecturer~~ in Physics on Rs150/- for the two months 3rd February to 2nd April 1902, intervening between the termination of his present appointment as acting Lecturer in Physics and the time of my departure on leave

5

(b) an allowance of Rs75/- to Mr.C.M.Vijayaraghavachar Lecturer in Chemistry, and of Rs50/- to Mr B Venkatanarnappa,on account of the additional responsibility and work which they will have during my absonce.

3 With reference to my duties as Director of Meteorology, as I shall have the annual Report on Meteorology of Mysore for 1901 and Rainfall Registration for 1901 practically completed and probably through the press before my departure,I have the honor to recommend that Mr N Venkatesiengar, Chief Observer, be appointed to act for me as Director of Meteorology,drawing half my allowance ~~on~~ Rs50/- for the ten and a half months during which I shall be on furlough, in consideration of his additional responsibility.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,
